SIR JOHN JORDAN. ENTERTAINED BY ANGLO-AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

Over 300 ladies and gentlemen attended the farewell dinner given on the 11th inst. in the Hotel des Wagon, Lits, Peking by the Anglo-American Association to the British Minister the Right Hon. Sir John N. Jordan.

It was the first gathering under these auspices at which ladies were present. Mr. S. Mayers, Chairman of the Association, presided in the absence of Sir Francis Acland who is still indisposed, and was supported by His Excellency the British Minister and Dr. Tenney, American Charge d'Affaires, behind whom were displayed the Union Jack and the Stars and Stripes.

At the close of the dinner the chairman said that there would be no speeches, but that Dr. Tenney and Sir John Jordan would say a few words.

Dr. Tenney, in a few well-chosen sentences, described the sense of loss and bewilderment with which they viewed the departure of Sir John Jordan from Peking. In was like a street from which the principal building had been removed. They relied upon Sir John Jordan's guidance in so many matters that the prospect of being without it made them feel absolutely helpless. What impressed the speaker with regard to Sir John Jordan was that despite the fact that he had on occasions to be almost unpleasantly outspoken, he was held in such high regard and affectionate esteem by the Chinese. Everybody appreciated his sterling qualities, and though he was going home his influence would still be felt. Wherever he went he would exercise an influence. The speaker then invited the company to drink to the health of Sir John.

In reply, His Excellency thanked Dr. Tenney for his kind remarks, and expressed his deep interest in China, afterwards reciting a few personal reminiscences.

This concluded the formal proceedings, and an informal dance followed.

GERMAN TRADE IN CHINA RULES TO BE OBSERVED.

Many Germans, the Peking Daily News says, have applied to the Customs authorities of the various ports for permits to export raw materials from China. A Conference was recently held by officials of the Shui Wu Chu and the Ministry of Finance, and it has been decided that, as it has been the desire of the Government to encourage native products and the exportation of raw materials, the application of the Germans should be favourably considered. The exported goods should be taxed in accordance with the tariffs fixed in the reign of the Emperor Hsien Fang of the late Ching Dynasty. As the Germans have not yet made a fresh treaty with China, they should observe the following rules:

1.—In importing German goods to this country, the Customs duty should be paid in strict accordance with the tariffs which will be provided for by the Chinese Government, and that the present Customs tariffs cannot be applied to their case.

2.—When German goods are sent into the interior of the country, like and other contributions should be paid in full as in the case of native merchants. No Customs' certificate shall be issued to German merchants exempting them from the same.

3.—No triplicate certificates shall hereafter be issued to Germans who go into the interior to purchase native goods.

4.—No free permits shall be issued for the transportation of German goods manufactured in this country.

5.—No German shall be allowed to act as agent in the interior.

JAPAN AND SIBERIA.

A LARGE VOTE.

The Japanese Diet recently voted 120,000,000 yen for the Siberian Expeditionary Force. All the amendments proposed were defeated by large majorities.

Replying to an interpellation, the Premier said that even if American troops are withdrawn altogether from Siberia, the Japanese will not necessarily follow suit. In any case, he pointed out, the Americans are not yet out of Siberia.

The Premier also pointed out that Japanese troops must remain along the Siberian railways at least until the evacuation of the Czech-Slovak troops is completed. Japan's policy is not yet fully determined, he said, and it cannot be stated now whether our troops will be withdrawn after the Czechs have left.

It is not wise for Japan to announce whether her troops will be withdrawn as long as the policy of the other Allies toward Siberia is still in doubt.

Two movements to change the disposition of the Japanese forces now engaged in Siberia were indicated to-day. It is understood here that all Japanese troops now on duty along the Ussuri and Amur railways will shortly be transferred to points along the Chinese Eastern Railway, the added protection of which has become necessary to insure the evacuation of the Czechs.

ST. STEPHEN'S GIRLS' COLLEGE CONCERT. IN AID OF THE BUILDING FUND.

An excellent concert was given by the students of the St. Stephen's Girls' College in aid of the Building Fund on February 14th. The Rev. W. H. Hewitt, M.A., kindly lent the Lai Kwai Phi Hall of St. Stephen's Boys' College for the concert. The students who took part and those who trained them are much to be congratulated on the success of the entertainment. The kindergarten songs were sweet and captivating. Praise is also due to the Lower School for their song in which the enunciation was extremely clear. The Upper School gave "The Trial of Rebecca" from Ivanhoe. Everyone taking part acted in such a manner that it was evident the story was well known and understood. The "Chinese Story" and the "Tea-party" produced much laughter, while the wax-works were as good as, or perhaps even better than, those of historical renown. The violin duets by Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Britton were very much enjoyed by all.

At the end of the programme, Miss Middleton Smith read a letter from Miss Griffin who is on furlough. In the letter Miss Griffin referred to the great need of new premises.

Mrs. Lander was then asked to present the Scholarship cups given to the candidates who obtained the highest success in the July Hongkong Local. The Senior cup was carried off by Ng Sui Lin and the Junior by Dong Pek King. Kwok Wing Yuen also passed the Senior Local at Christmas, and received a certificate.

The Bishop, in his speech, referred to the "Black Cat" on the front of his programme, and said he thought that it was emblematic of the Girls' College in that it is said to have many lives, and the Girls' College had certainly passed through many vicissitudes, but he felt sure that the College had yet a great future in front of it.

Archdeacon Barnett said he was going to answer questions about the College. One was about the land. He was glad to say land had been given by the Government in return for land given by the Church Missionary Society. Secondly, with regard to money. They had to depend on those who were interested in the education of the girls to give the money for the buildings. He stated that if some one would head the list with $10,000 as the first subscription, the school would receive the same amount from a benefactor who desired to remain unknown.

Dr. W. N. also spoke about the need of the school. Several of his children having been educated in the school he could speak with authority, and knew that it did not stand for more outward show, but for solid and good training, both moral and intellectual.

The proceedings closed with cheers for Mrs. Lander, the Bishop and other friends. Tea was then served. The programmes were in covers of many and beautiful design executed by the girls themselves. They were sold at the door with dainty buttonholes.

CANTON NEWS.

February 23rd.

All large department stores and leading business firms of the city will re-open this morning after the Chinese New Year holidays. The shops report that more than 80 per cent. of their accounts were settled at the end of the year.

Students' agitation is said to have revived again. Seven students were arrested by the police on the evening of the 19th inst. for unruly behaviour in the streets. Ten students were marching along Sup Chat Po and Sup Pat Po, the most congested part of the city, vociferously shouting a reminder to the people to boycott Japanese goods. When cautioned by the police, they used offensive language. The arrests followed.

EXPORT OF CANTON SILK.

According to the report of the British Chamber of Commerce, Canton, on export of raw silk, waste silk, and pierced cocoons from here for the season of 1919-1920, during the last 2 weeks ending February 10th some 65 bales of raw silk, were shipped to England, 1,030 to France and 1,237 to America. Regarding pierced cocoons, 67 bales were shipped to America and none has been shipped to England and France. Since May 1st, 1919, Canton has shipped 64,984 bales of raw silk, 29,601 bales of waste silk, and 5,761 bales of pierced cocoons to Europe and America.

DEVELOPMENT OF BOMBAY.

The Times of India draws attention to the vast schemes for the expansion of Bombay city which are now coming to a head. Government, the municipality, the improvement trust, the port trust and the employers of labour are all engaged on the work. The preliminary of the scheme have already been elaborated and engineers are now hard at work on the initial stages of their execution.

NAVAL SURGEON'S LAPSE. FORMERLY IN HONGKONG.

Temp. Surg. Lieut. Howel P. Williams, who was in Hongkong on H.M.S. Suffolk last year, was tried by a court-martial at Home on January 9th, for neglect of duty in failing to join his ship, H.M.S. Vivid, on October 14th, after receiving instructions to do so, and with wilfully disobeying his superior officer on November 3rd, when ordered to report at Portsmouth.

Accused, who pleaded guilty to both charges said, in a written statement, that he applied to join the Navy as a surgeon-probationer in June, 1914, and was appointed in the following month. He served in a hospital ship, and had carried out other duties of a strenuous character. He wished to point out that he could have been voluntarily demobilized. He lost a valuable year of study, which failed him for his final examination for the Liverpool degree. He took up the London diploma, but still had to get his degree. That diploma cost him an additional £80, which need not have been incurred had he not been so anxious to get back to the Navy. He was appointed surgeon-lieutenant in May, 1918, to the R.N. hospital ship at Chatham. Later he served on H.M.S. Suffolk and went to the China Station, remaining there from October, 1918, to June, 1919, and he had been to Siberia. As the result of continued hardship he contracted influenza and pneumonia and was in hospital at Hongkong from January of March, 1919. Since then he had been in poor health and was subject to fits of intense depression. When his father, who was a doctor, died in 1904, he left his practice to a cousin on the understanding that he or his brother would later be taken into partnership when qualified. Last May his cousin offered him the partnership and he wished to be demobilized, but could not be, although men who had seen very much less service were demobilized. When he was appointed to the Caledon his cousin refused to wait any longer, and took on another partner. This disappointment preyed on his mind. He proceeded to Portsmouth on October 14th, with every intention of joining his ship. He met some friends, who insisted upon a farewell dinner, and he got drunk. The next day he failed to report, and the day after he was frightened. He kept on putting it off and could not summon up sufficient courage to report personally. He reported by letter to his commanding officer about the middle of November. On Sunday, November 23rd, he was ordered to report himself, but his courage again failed him, and then he decided to wait until Monday, on which day an escort came for him. He wished to point out that he was a temporary officer—a civilian—and ignorant of army ways, and at the time he did not realize the seriousness of his offence. He had such a horror of naval discipline that perhaps he regarded it too seriously. He respectfully submitted that already he had been severely punished, for the effect of his having undergone a court-martial would ruin him professionally. A stigma would rest upon his name. He had been in custody for the past six weeks. He deeply regretted all the trouble he had made, and threw himself on the mercy of the Court.

The Court sentenced accused to be dismissed his ship and to be severely reprimanded.

MARINE COURT.

THIRD ENGINEER'S LAPSE.

At the Marine Court, yesterday, before Capt. Basil Taylor, R.N., Marine Magistrate, Mr. E. Simpson, third engineer of the s.s. War Singer, was charged with having absented himself from his steamer in Hongkong Harbour at 7 a.m. on February 17th.

The defendant pleaded guilty. Mr. R. Williams, master of the War Singer, said that in nearly every port the ship went to, the defendant got on the drunk. In Hongkong, on February 16th, the defendant went ashore to get his teeth attended to. He was not on the ship at 7 a.m. on February 17th—he came between 8 p.m. and 9 p.m. on February 19th, after having been in hospital for two days. The defendant told witness he was run over by a ricksha.

The defendant said "he got knocking about" and was knocked down by a ricksha.

The Magistrate pointed out that that was on the 17th, when he should have been on board.

Defendant said that he and some friends had a "jollification" the night before and he had a bad head in the morning, so he took a drink or two. In the afternoon a ricksha handle knocked up against his eye.

The Magistrate: I can't understand you people. You know you can't hold liquor, and yet you take it.

The defendant: I am very sorry.

The Magistrate: I am sure you are. And still you go ahead and take it again.

The master of the vessel said he had forgiven the defendant many times.

The Magistrate ordered the forfeiture of 12 days' pay.

WESTMINSTER DIVORCE.

The President of the Divorce Division, Sir Henry Duke, on December 19th, made absolute the decree nisi granted to the Duchess of Westminster on June 17th, last on the ground of her husband's desertion and adultery with a woman in Britain. The case, appeared in the official list as Constance, Edwina Grosvenor, Duchess of Westminster, v. Westminster. The proceedings were a purely formal one. The President stating that six months having elapsed since the decree nisi was granted it would be made absolute. No counsel appeared on either side.

RANDOM REFLECTIONS.

I trust that our Chinese friends were entirely satisfied with the weather conditions that prevailed during the New Year holiday. Rain at this time is considered by them to be "good luck." It is regarded as ensuring good crops for the farmer and China is an agricultural country above all else. And as good crops spell prosperity for the merchant, too, there is satisfaction, if not joy, in the towns as well as in the country. It is strange that, while hoping for rain, the Chinese should unanimously agree that this is the season of the year when they should one and all put on their finest silks and take an airing. How quickly they have taken to joy rides in motor cars! The rain depresses them not at all. But the European New Year holiday forward to the Chinese New Year holiday, for the opportunity, it offers of pleasant picnics on the water or on the hills, or what is more popular, than either now—days—pleasant days on the golf links, thanks his luck has been absolutely "rotten."

There are always two ways of looking at things—a right and a wrong way. For months past, nay for years past, the landlord in Hongkong has been viewed by a great many people as a profiteer. The worm thus trodden on is turning. Mr. Henry Humphreys is the second Chairman of an Estate Company, this year to depict the landlord as a Philanthropist. The net profits of the Humphreys Estate and Finance Company, he said, were "disappointing," since they amounted to "only about 4 per cent. on the capital"—which went to prove that so far from there being any profiteering, rentals are, in fact, too low. "People with money," Mr. Humphreys observed, "are not going to be bothered with house building when there are so many more attractive investments for capital with far less trouble." One is, therefore, left to wonder why, if they are not philanthropists, the Directors of Estate Companies in Hongkong do not unload their shares on the market and quit the business. Evidently all Directors of Estate Companies do not think alike on the subject, for I heard of one quite recently who had increased his holdings by five thousand shares.

It is interesting to notice that one thing which has favourably impressed a Singapore contemporary about the Preliminary Report on the Hongkong Government's transactions in rice, is "the very great extent to which outside aid of able and experienced business men was obtained." It is strange as it may seem, the one thing that has impressed many people in Hongkong is the extent to which advice tendered by able and experienced business men was disregarded!

Now, does it not look rather like "rubbing it in" to invite the Colonial Secretary to a Chinese dinner before he goes on leave? Report both that the hon. gentleman is about to "fed up" with Rice. Yes one can't imagine a Chinese dinner without rice and plenty of it!

When a Colonial Secretary goes on leave it generally excites a little speculation as to whether he is coming back again. If, at one of the semi-public dinners to which Mr. Severn is being invited before he departs, that pathetic little ballad "Will ye no come back again?" is included in the musical programme, the hon. gentleman might be induced to say whether he is "severin" his connection with the Colony or not. I don't know whether "President" is the only justification for the rumour that Mr. Severn is likely to follow in the footsteps of his predecessor—Sir Henry May—and go to the Fiji Islands as Governor and High Commissioner for the Western Pacific. More unlikely things may happen. According to the law of averages the post may be vacant about the time Mr. Severn's leave expires.

A report reaches me that the Director of Education, who has recently returned from leave, is sleeping at his post! I hasten to explain that this is due to a shortage of hotel accommodation in the Colony.

How many of us are acquainted with people who have a habit of bursting into song while engaged in their mutual ablutions? I know of one. But that is not what I set myself out to say. What I wanted to mention was that a Professor in London has recently been asking, "Why do people sing in bath-rooms?" A Medical correspondent of the Daily News answered the question by saying that surroundings have nothing to do with ablutions. "A man is generally in a happy mood when he is having a bath, for a bath has an exhilarating effect on mind and body. A cold bath acts like a tonic on the lungs. In the afternoon which it produces the lungs expand, and a man will give voice to a loud pean of happiness." I know that, man! Another doctor averred that comic songs are not popular in the bath-room, except when a man starts to dry himself. On this point, there are people living in the caravans of Hongkong who could contribute valuable information. I knew a man—never seen on the concert platform—who was wont to regale his neighbours regularly while taking his morning douche with a wonderful selection from the comic songs of the past forty years. I have often envied his gift of memory and even admired his lung power, though I cannot honestly say that his voice was tinny.

RODOLPH RASPOW.

BETTER SOME GOD THAN NONE AT ALL.

BISHOP'S REMARKABLE SERMON AT THE CATHEDRAL.

Bishop Lander preached on Godliness at the Cathedral on Sunday morning. He announced that he would like to have preached each Sunday during Lent as it would be his last, but he would be obliged to be away two or three Sundays taking confirmations in other parts of his diocese. The sermon yesterday was the first of three on "A Godly, Righteous and Sober life in Hongkong." "Godliness," said the Bishop, comes first, as if a man is not right with God he cannot be right with his neighbours or with himself. Righteousness was said to be just and devout; some men are neither just nor devout. A few may be devout but not just, but the tendency today is to be just but not devout. Time was when a profession of godliness was required by convention and custom. Hypocrisy was a real peril then. That is no longer the case. In the Old Testament the Jews were warned against having other gods instead of, or in addition to, Jehovah. To-day, we have sunk below the state contemplated in the 1st Commandment as we are not tempted to have too many gods, but what is much worse, to have none at all. It is better to worship any painted idol or the sun, moon and stars than to worship nothing, and no God. The atmosphere of Hongkong is not conducive to spirituality. It is materialistic and utilitarian, and we need to be recalled to godliness. Recognise God's rights. Perhaps religious thought in the latter part of the last century laid too much stress on what men would gain by being Christian—and not enough on the sovereign rights of God, our Creator, to our allegiance and worship. Our duty is what we owe. Our first duty, or debt, is to God. This is no optional matter, for the clergy and few saints. Men cannot get out of their duty to God by saying "I make no profession of godliness," any more than a thief can excuse himself by saying "I make no profession of honesty." Man is made to glorify God, and if he does not do it, he is not giving God his right. We need to emphasise God's right. We have heard far more of the rights of working-men and of women's rights than we have of God's rights, but they are first and foremost. It is necessary that Europeans in Hongkong exercise themselves into godliness. Meditate on whatever is beautiful and uplifting; use all means of spiritual inspiration, such as reading the Bible, diligent prayer—private, ejaculatory and public prayer. Prayer is not trying to get God to do what we want, but opening our lives to Him so that He may do what He wants with us. Praise is appreciating God. Adoration, worship, and Holy Communion, all, if rightly used, tend towards godliness. Practice the Presence of God always. Do everything as unto Him. The great singer, Jenny Lind, is reported to have said that she always sang to God. He was more present to her than the human audience. The difference between living to society and living to God is the difference between singing in a cage and singing in a sky. It is a cramped life that looks no further than human approval or disapproval. We live unto God. Hongkong Society needs more open avowals of allegiance to God. Converts from other religions are necessarily publicly baptised. Confirmation is meant to be such a public avowal for those baptised in infancy, and after that there are many opportunities for some public avowal, without any priggishness or parade of religion. The time is coming when the one thing that will really matter to us all will be, not our money, our position in society or anything of that kind, but our relation to God. At all costs then get right with Him.

TWO RUINED CHINESE MERCHANTS.

WISHED TO DIE TOGETHER.

The Chinese New Year is a time of festivity and gaiety for all who have passed through the old year successfully—especially from the financial point of view. Accounts are made up, books set in order, the profits distributed and businesses are closed while the proprietors and their employees celebrate the dawn of a new year. For those who cannot square accounts it is a time of gloom. There was one Chinese firm in the Colony which found no occasion to rejoice, and two of the partners, after making up the books and finding a deficit of over $8,000, sought forgiveness by indulging in riotous living. This, however, did not soothe their fears for long and at last the partners in business decided to be partners in death by committing suicide together. They walked to the Praya on Sunday afternoon, and, clasping each other by the hand, jumped into the sea. A constable noticed the incident and immediately raised an alarm. A gampian picked them up and brought ashore, none the worse for their immersion. They were brought up before Mr. J. R. Wood at the Magistracy, yesterday, on a charge of attempting to commit suicide. When the above facts were related the Magistrate wished to know whether there were any more partners in the firm. Inspector Macdonald replied that there were seven others and two were present in Court. Mr. Wood demanded the case and invited the partners into his chambers, where the matter was discussed, with what result will be known on Wednesday.

SNATCHERS IMPRISONED. HOW THESE MEN OPERATE.

Interesting light was thrown on the methods adopted by snatchers, when Inspector Cashman charged a Chinese youth and a little boy at the Magistracy, yesterday, with snatching $20 from another boy.

Complainant's statement was to the effect that he was walking along Queen's Road, with $20 in his breast-pocket, when he felt some one extracting the money. He seized the hand and, turning round, saw first defendant, signal something to a little boy standing near him. This boy ran away and was followed by a friend of complainant's who arrested him. The $20 was not recovered.

Defendant stated that it was a case of mistaken identity. The money was not found in their possession.

Inspector Cashman said that the snatchers usually worked in gangs and the money had no doubt changed hands rapidly. The first defendant had a previous conviction against him, and the second defendant, who had been twice convicted, seemed to be an expert.

Mr. Smith sentenced the first defendant to six months' hard labour and the second defendant to three months' hard labour and to receive ten strokes of the birch.

AN UNLUCKY FIND.

A Chinese, who had no fewer than three previous convictions against him, was charged at the Magistracy, yesterday, with snatching a gold ear-pick from a woman.

Defendant stated that he saw the article lying on the ground and picked it up, when the woman accused him of snatching.

Mr. Smith sentenced defendant to three months' hard labour and to receive ten strokes of the birch.

CHINESE BOY'S RUSE.

On Saturday last a Chinese boy was victimized by a snatcher, who stole his purse and ran away. When the boy discovered his loss he made plans to trap the thief on the following day. For this purpose he put an empty purse into his pocket on Sunday, and letting two of his friends into the scene, asked them to keep watch. He went to the same place where he had been previously robbed and, placing his purse in such a position as to attract attention, he waited. A few minutes later a Chinese appeared on the scene and going near the boy, snatched the empty purse. The friends immediately seized the man, and, after thrashing him, took him to the Police Station. Yesterday, the man was charged with snatching and was sentenced to three months' hard labour.

"AUTOMATIC SUSPENSION OF GAMBLING ORDINANCE"

CHINESE NEW YEAR AND THE GAMBLING CRAZE.

At the Magistracy, yesterday, twenty-three Chinese were charged with gambling on Chinese New Year Day.

Mr. Leo d'Almada, for defendants, stated that it would not serve a useful purpose for him to plead "not guilty," although for the Police to prove a case like that would be rather difficult. He thought the Magistrate would agree with him when he stated that that was a case which should be dealt with leniently. He could go into the witness-box and swear to the fact that the whole of the Chinese community of Hongkong had gambled during the holidays. As a matter of fact, anybody who went through the Chinese area in Kowloon would at once come to the conclusion that the gambling Ordinance of Hongkong had been automatically suspended during the holidays. There were at least over 300 gambling dens in Kowloon, where fan tan and kluk-kluk were being played. There were also gambling houses in the vicinity of the Central market and in many other places, because the people presumed that as the law had not interfered last year, it would not do so on the present occasion. They were, however, not justified in doing it. That case, he understood, was the first one to be brought before the Court. There was no reason whatever why Chinese should not be allowed to have a little flutter during their holidays.

Inspector Grant stated that in this particular instance the premises had been rented for the purpose. It might be all right for a shop-keeper and his friends to have "a little flutter," but that was a case of letting the premises to a professional gambler. Mr. Almada replied that all the gambling dens were carried on by professionals. Mr. Smith fined the two keepers $15 each and discharged the rest with a caution.

ALLEGED ILL-TREATMENT OF SERVANT GIRL.

WEALTHY CHINESE WOMAN CHARGED.

A wealthy Chinese woman was charged at the Magistracy, yesterday, with ill-treating a servant girl in her employ.

On February 19th, the woman threatened the girl with a feather duster. The girl ran away and was found wandering about the streets crying. She was taken to the Police Station and a few minutes later the mistress came to the station, accompanied by the girl, and allowed her out on $100 bail.

Mr. Smith sent the case to the Secretary for Chinese Affairs for settlement.

SPORT.

THE MARATHON RACE.

The time of the winner in the Marathon Race should have been 1 hour 11 mins. 21 seconds, and not as we published it yesterday.

M. Fukuchi, the only Japanese entrant, was another who completed the course.

FOOTBALL.

UNITED SERVICES LEAGUE.

2ND WILTSHIRE REG'T. 4, H.M.S. "MARAZON," 1.

In this match, played at Happy Valley on Saturday, only two of the military team which defeated H.M.S. "Hawkins" earlier in the week appeared. From the kick-off, the Wiltshires commenced to press steadily. Amor and Beck being conspicuous for good work on the extreme wings. Before long the pressure told, and, after about fifteen minutes' play, the ball came across from the left and Harper scored at close range. Soon afterwards Amor put in a good shot which the "Marazion" goalkeeper just put round the post. A mistake by the ship's left back allowed Beck to have a shot which gave the custodian no chance, the ball taking the top corner of the net. After this the "Marazion" backed up and on more than one occasion looked dangerous, but found their opponents' defence sound.

Following play in midfield, Lucas dropped the ball into the "Marazion" goalmouth and the goalkeeper misjudging the ball, it bounded into the net. The "Marazion" started off the second-half in good style but could not pass the Wiltshire's backs. Amor was again soon in the picture on the left and scored twenty minutes from the end put in a lovely ground shot which the goalkeeper failed to clear and Harper rubbed the ball into the goal. Lucas hit the cross-bar with a great shot. Towards the end, the "Marazion" broke through and notched their only goal. They made great endeavours to score again, but the final whistle blew with the Wiltshire's winners by four goals to one.

HOCKEY.

THE CLUB v. THE NAVY.

The following will represent the Club (which will play in colours) against the Royal Navy at 5 p.m. on U.S.R.C. ground tomorrow (Wednesday):—J. P. Jones, M. L. Raiton, C. C. Hickling, E. J. R. Mitchell, Rev. E. W. L. Martin, W. W. Mackenzie, R. A. Brand, E. L. Sim, A. K. Mackenzie, J. V. Braga and B. D. Evans (Capt.).

BOXING.

NEXT TOURNAMENT ON MARCH 5th.

It has been decided, so as to avoid clashing with other fixtures, to hold the next boxing tournament at the Theatre Royal on Friday, March 5th. The main event will be a contest for the welter-weight championship of Hongkong between Sky Kerrison, the holder, and Iron Buxi who is now on his way to the Colony from Manila.

The Boxing Association had hoped to arrange a fight between Seaman Walters and Sky Kerrison before March 5th, but the doctor has definitely refused to let Walters box for the present.

ROWING NOTES.

Training for the Regatta to be held next Saturday has been interfered with by the unsettled weather, race week and that hardy and well-worn excuse "flu." It has been difficult to raise enthusiasm among the general rowing men, but the supporters have decided that a start must be made some time or other, and, despite the difficulties they have been experiencing since they started out, the meeting comes off at the end of the week. Unfortunately the V.R.C. rowing men have suffered heavily from "flu" and had themselves unable to get a combination together. They have had to resign themselves to being spectators, but we all hope to see them represented at the next meeting.

Of the Canton crews little has been heard, but from former experiences the Hongkong men have prepared themselves for a stiff struggle as the Canton Boat Club have been strong opponents since they entered for the Inter-port events, and I believe they had cleared the board when rowing had to give place to military training.

The Royals have been busy teaching the mysteries of "sliding," "hands away sharply" and "swinging together" to some very promising new stuff, and Dame Rumour states that the Club Coach has been favoured with several new names, all descriptive of the varied feelings of the victims after he has dealt with them.

The Club Four still appears to be unsettled, owing to some changes having to be made at the last moment. The last occasion I saw them going out, something went wrong with the combination, for the cox advised me to take a direct ticket to a climate considerably warmer when I questioned him about them. Fragments of conversation held between himself and the members of the crew made me imagine that some heavy betting was going on about "celluloid cats" and "sabotage mics" whereas further enquiries were postponed for a smoother period.

The "Pair" have been going strong, and it will have to be a good lot to withstand them. They showed up very well the last time they were out, and given heavy water, their chances are good.

Regarding the "Doubles," they are a dark crowd. No one has seen them out yet. The "Ladies Race" is also open for betting. Enquiries have been told that the following are certain to be placed:—Row—Miss Anne O'Brien. Stroke—Miss S. O. Elie.

Presumably these are relatives of the great cricketer family, for I have a dim recollection of coming across these names from time to time.

Still, we expect to see something next Saturday, even if only the Club cox exploding.

HONGKONG, FEBRUARY 24TH, 1920.

SHORTAGE OF PASSENGER ACCOMMODATION.

It is, perhaps, useless to complain, but we hope it may be of some service to place on public record the crying need in the East for more and larger passenger liners, especially on the Suez route.

There are crowds of European residents in the East, who, now that the war is over, are waiting to visit England and other countries in Europe, and large numbers of them see no prospect of getting berths on any steamer until the summer is well advanced. Every ship that leaves the East for Europe takes all the passengers she can carry. It is a noteworthy fact, that, with the exception of two or three liners of the Messageries Maritimes, there are no large ships yet on the Suez route, such as we had in plenty before the war, notwithstanding that the demand for passenger accommodation now must necessarily be very much greater than it was before the war.

The larger German liners, which had a considerable share of the passenger traffic in pre-war days, have been eliminated; the P. & O. Company have not been able since the war to place upon the run any large passenger liners; and, what makes matters worse, is that the four or five fine N.Y.K. ships of the Katori-maru type, which were formerly on the Suez route and were transferred for safety during the war, to the Seattle run, are retained on the Pacific route, partly because there is business enough on that route to justify their retention on it, and partly, apparently, because the Japanese Government is particularly desirous of developing the trans-Pacific business and has granted the Company a subsidy to keep the ships on that run.

All the vessels proceeding to United States and Canadian ports, however, leave the East with their passenger accommodation fully booked, so that if the larger N.Y.K. ships were placed again on the Suez route, it would only mean greater scarcity of accommodation for the trans-Pacific route. Before another year has passed, we know many more big liners will be running to the East, but it was hoped that by this Spring the P. & O. Company would have been in a position to cater more adequately for the passenger business of the East. The Company suffered very heavily in the war, but one expected that some of the confiscated German liners would have been available for the Eastern season's passenger trade by this time, and great disappointment is expressed throughout the Far East with the inadequacy of the provision which has been made to meet a long-foreseen demand, what makes matters worse for the ordinary resident is that the British Government, we understand, is making a claim to twenty-five per cent. of the passenger accommodation on British ships for the transport of officials—civil as well as military—and their wives and families, and the Colonial Governments seem to have some sort of a "pull" in regard to other lines.

ania explains how it happens that anyone in Government service seems able to get a passage when the ordinary residents tries in vain. We see no reason why civil servants and their families should not take their chance with the rest of mortals. Passenger accommodation for Hongkong is very limited. We believe that only about twenty per cent. of the accommodation on most British ships is allotted to Hongkong—and the Government is laying claim to twenty-five per cent. of it. The Imperial Government ought to make other arrangements. Some time ago something was reported in the London papers of an intention to utilise an obsolete warship or two for the conveyance of commercial travellers to foreign countries, while ordinary shipping agencies were inadequate to cope with the traffic. We do not know whether that is seriously contemplated, but we can see no reason why the Imperial Government should not have considered the advisability of utilising warships for the conveyance of Imperial and Colonial officials, instead of commandeering so large a proportion of the meagre accommodation which the shipping companies are yet able to afford to meet the abnormal demand directly resulting from the war.

Recently attention has been drawn to the need of improved facilities for shipping in Hongkong harbour. We see it stated in a Tokyo newspaper that a serious situation is developing in Yokohama in regard to the congestion of freight. Shipping men say that at present the facilities are wholly inadequate to handle the cargoes of ships in that port, and there is much delay in the delivery of merchandise from the Custom House, as well as in the discharge of freight from the ships. The recent trouble with the lightermen added to the difficulty. A serious disarrangement in the sailing schedules as well as an almost hopeless confusion in the handling of the freight was feared.

An enquiry was held, yesterday, at the Magistrate's into the circumstances surrounding the death of a Chinese who had died as a result of falling from a verandah whereby he sustained multiple injuries. The facts were to the effect that the deceased, who had been accused by a comrade, of stealing some clothing, jumped over a verandah in an attempt to escape. The jury, after hearing the evidence, brought in a verdict of "death from misadventure."

At a meeting of Russians at Shanghai last week at which a scheme was advocated for taking over the Consulate and getting rid of the present Consular officials; and, further, that steps should be taken to inspect the books of the Russo-Asiatic Bank, "with a view to checking the national money in its custody," a responsible Russian merchant denounced the whole Bolshevik scheme and challenged their right to gather there and talk of taking over the Consulate and the Bank. The meeting, however, appointed a committee of seven to consider propaganda plans, pending the convening of another meeting at an early date.

UNION BUILDING, SHANGHAI.

Personally, however, I do not believe that any after-training can remove the influence of the first few years of a child's life. The mind gradually opening up to its surroundings assimilates good or evil, and the foundation of the character is laid. It is the mother's time, and women who entrust the entire charge of their children to the care of an amah, are selling their birth-right for a mess of pottage. Personally I cannot believe that many are content to do this. And yet when you see some of the young mothers leave their homes at 9 or 10 a.m., return

MAJ. GENERAL TOWNSHEND.

"THE ARMY IS MY LIFE."

A telegram in yesterday's issue informed us that Major-General Townshend, the heroic defender of Kut, had withdrawn his resignation.

The following extracts from an interview published in the Daily News, shortly after the resignation was tendered, will not be without interest:

"I asked the General point blank if he would say anything about the reasons for his resignation. But here I met the iron reserve of the soldier still on the active list, the true disciplinarian who can discipline himself.

"I am very sorry," said the General. "I can tell you nothing about that. Until my resignation is accepted by the War Office my lips are absolutely sealed. After that I shall be free to talk, and then I shall say something."

"You can understand that I am fearfully depressed about leaving the Army. It is the greatest grief of my life. The Army to me is my life, and I care for nothing else. My whole life has been spent in serving my country; I have served it like a priest in religion, simply because of our family tradition. It is a great blow for me to have to leave."

"My first commission was in 1892, and I have been in ten campaigns."

THE GENERAL'S BOOK.

It has been suggested that General Townshend's forthcoming book, which is to be published shortly by Thornton Butterworth, might contain some drastic criticisms of his superiors.

"In my book I attack nobody, living or dead," said the General, in reply to my question. "I simply tell my own story and the absolute facts that are within my own knowledge. You may also add that during the two years and four months I spent in the hands of the Turks I wrote a book on strategy which will be published shortly."

"The misery of that awful time was something appalling, and I should certainly have gone mad but for the fact that I have always been a student of war, and was able to devote myself to my book. That was my salvation, because it kept my mind occupied. I have always intended to write the book, and during my active career in the Army I had no leisure to sit down and do work of this kind."

"I asked General Townshend about his plans for the future."

"I do not know what I shall do," he replied. "I should certainly like to go into Parliament, if any constituency will invite me. Failing that, I may go in for big game shooting. You know I have done a good deal of that in the Himalayas and Central India. I go in for all kinds of sport, and I am a specialist in big game shooting."

Then General Townshend referred again to the Army life he loved so well. "I was nearly going to Russia to General Denikin after my return from Turkey, but the War Office said I could not go unless I resigned. And of course I did not want to leave the Army. I had not even reached Poland to command an army there. I saw him in Paris; the Poles sent a deputation asking me to go, and that was a great compliment. But apparently the French would not agree to it."

"Perhaps, as things have turned out, it is best that I did not go to Denikin, but it was a great disappointment to me at the time. In any case, I cannot give up an active life. I am still perfectly fit for anything."

CONCRETE COTTAGES.

SCHEME FOR IMMEDIATE BUILDINGS.

It is proposed to build at once a large number of cottages in the United Kingdom, and the Victory Construction Co. has been formed to carry on the work. The houses will be semi-detached, and built of concrete with brick piers, and will contain a entrance hall, a parlour, living room, three bedrooms, a kitchen, bath, etc., and room for coals and larder. They will be of one storey, and their measurements will be about forty feet by twenty feet. The plans and arrangements have been approved by the Ministry of Health, and the cost will be not over £450 each, and perhaps less.

These houses are to be built in large numbers. Their construction will, therefore, be standardised, and the cost will, as a result, be reduced to the minimum. While it is estimated that these cottages can be built for the amount mentioned, if after construction it is found that a saving can be made on this sum that difference, whatever it is, will be deducted, and the buyer and occupier will receive that benefit. Another point of importance will be that they will be built and delivered to those who buy and occupy them at actual cost, and without a penny of profit to the Victory Building Company or to anyone else. The object is to assist in supplying a great national need. The Government allowance of £140 will, of course, also be deducted, making a final cost of only £310, or less.

The Borough Council of Acton has set aside land upon which the first 100 houses will be built, and the ground rental will be fixed by the borough officials. Mr. Gordon Selfridge, who is interested in the new undertaking, says the intention is to complete this number in the fewest days or weeks time possible, but inasmuch as the Acton Council is allowing the company to occupy land in that district, it has been agreed that this first 100 cottages shall be allotted to local residents through the Council.

CAPTAIN FRYATT'S SHIP

Reuter's Agency learns that the Belgian courts have decided that Captain Fryatt's ship the Brussels is a "good prize." The Belgian Government has offered the vessel unconditionally as a free gift to the British Government. BABY HAD ECZEMA CUTICURA HEALS

On Face and Head. Very Restless. Scratched Dreadfully.

"When my baby was six weeks old he broke out with a bad rash on his face and head. I was told it was eczema. The child was very restless and scratched himself dreadfully so that I had to bandage his head and hands. We got very little sleep. Then I tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment. They stopped the burning and itching and after using two boxes of Cuticura Ointment with the Soap he was quite healed." (Signed) Mrs. L. Bagshaw, 45, Victoria Rd., Brighton, Sheffield, Eng.

Most skin troubles might be prevented by using Cuticura Soap and Ointment for every-day toilet purposes.

Sample doses, Ointment to heal. British Depot: F. Newbery & Sons, Ltd., 27, Cannon Row, London. Sold everywhere.

A Good Medicine

According to one of the wise old thinkers of the past, possesses two important qualities. It "restores us our health when we lose it" and it "preserves our health while we have it." Probably no popular medicine possesses these two qualities in greater measure than Beecham's Pills. Beecham's Pills restore and also preserve the health. They are excellent to take when the system is run-down and in need of a gentle restorative. Beecham's Pills act upon and through the organs of digestion—the regular and harmonious working of which is of the first importance. They speedily correct irregularities and restore healthy conditions. It has been abundantly proved that the occasional use of this well-known medicine will go far to maintain the general health in a state of efficiency. Enjoy good health therefore, by taking that good medicine—

Beecham's Pills.

BEECHAM'S PILLS are specially suitable for Females of all ages. In boxes, 1s. 6d., 3s., 4s., 5s. and 6s.
